

Model Monkey
1/32 scale Bristol Beaufighter Mk.IF and Mk.II Cockpit
Assembly and Painting Guide

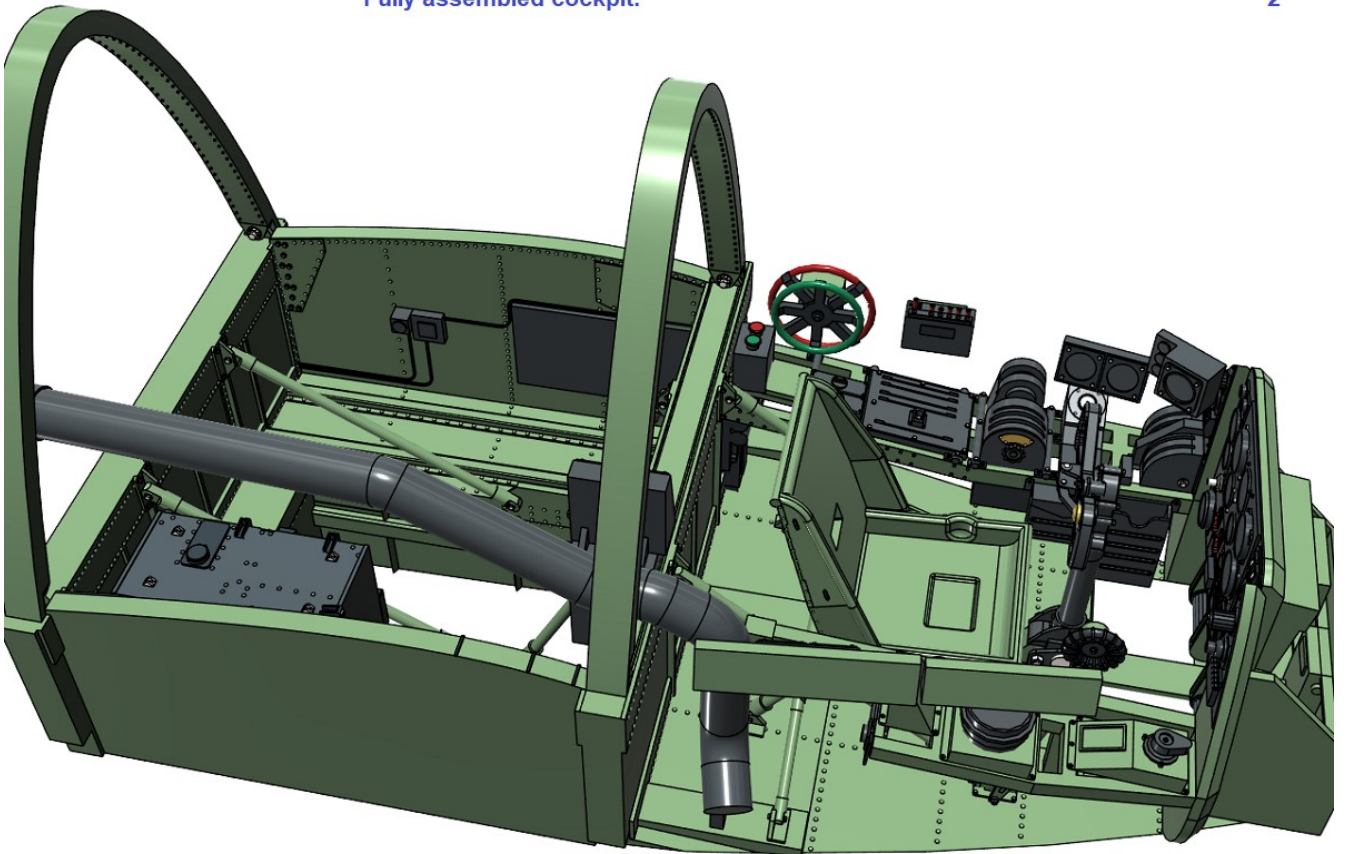

1

Fully assembled cockpit.

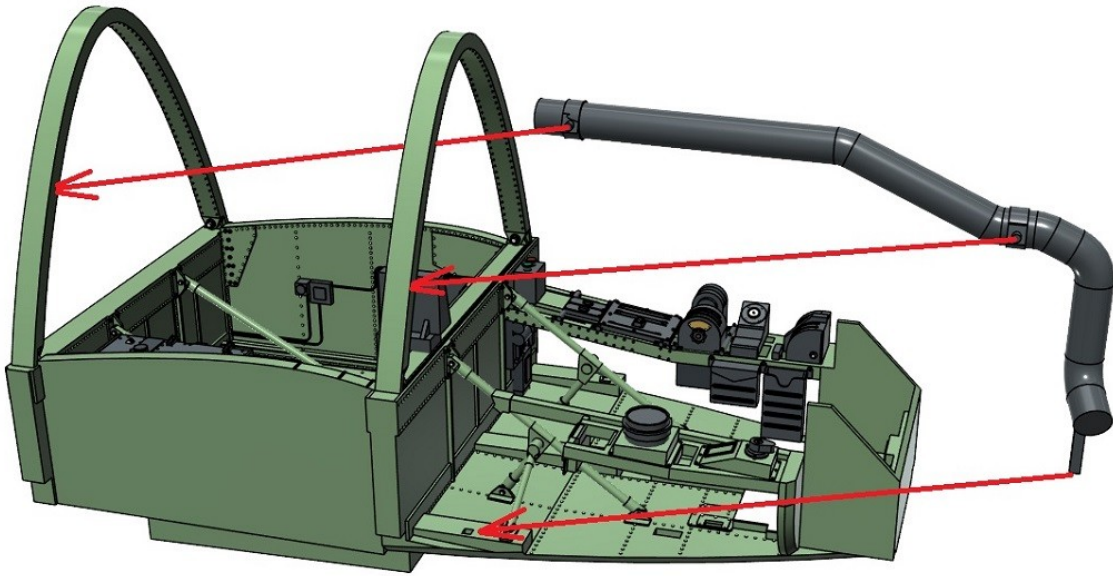

Fully assembled cockpit.

2

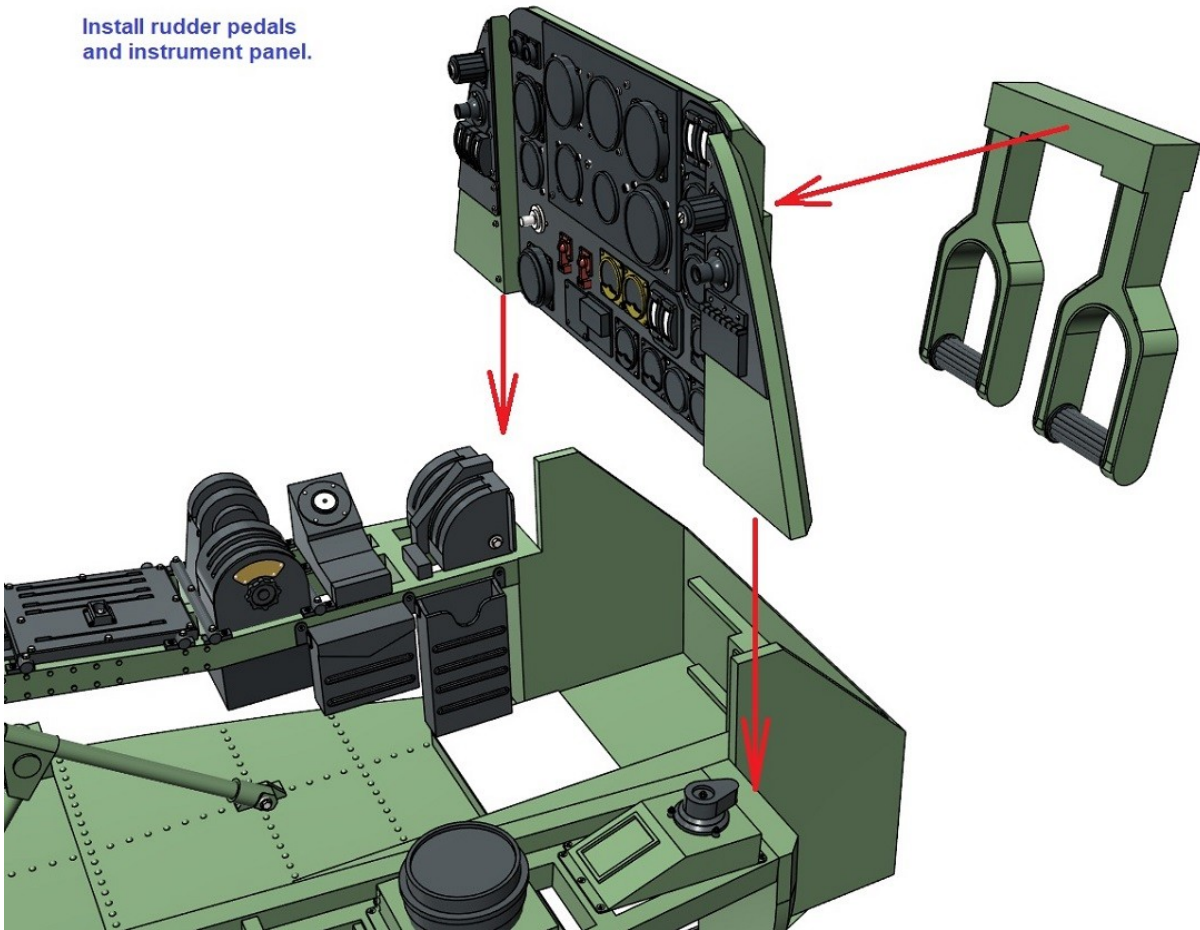

Install heating air duct.

3

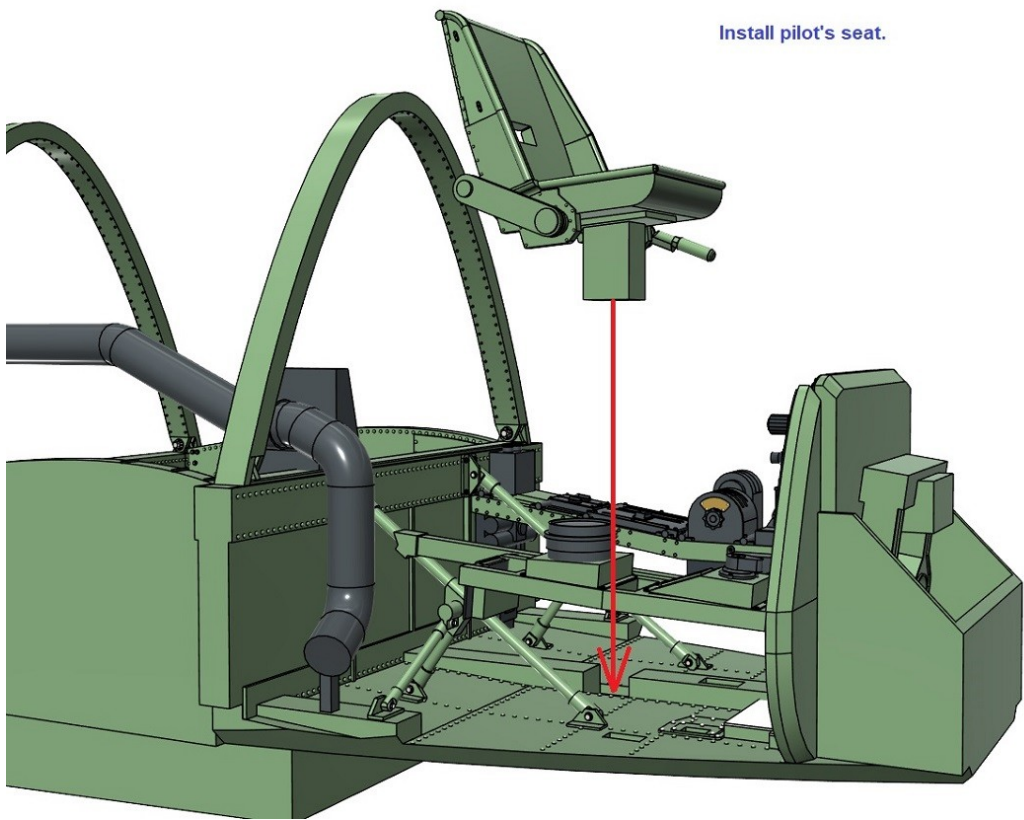

Install rudder pedals and instrument panel.

4

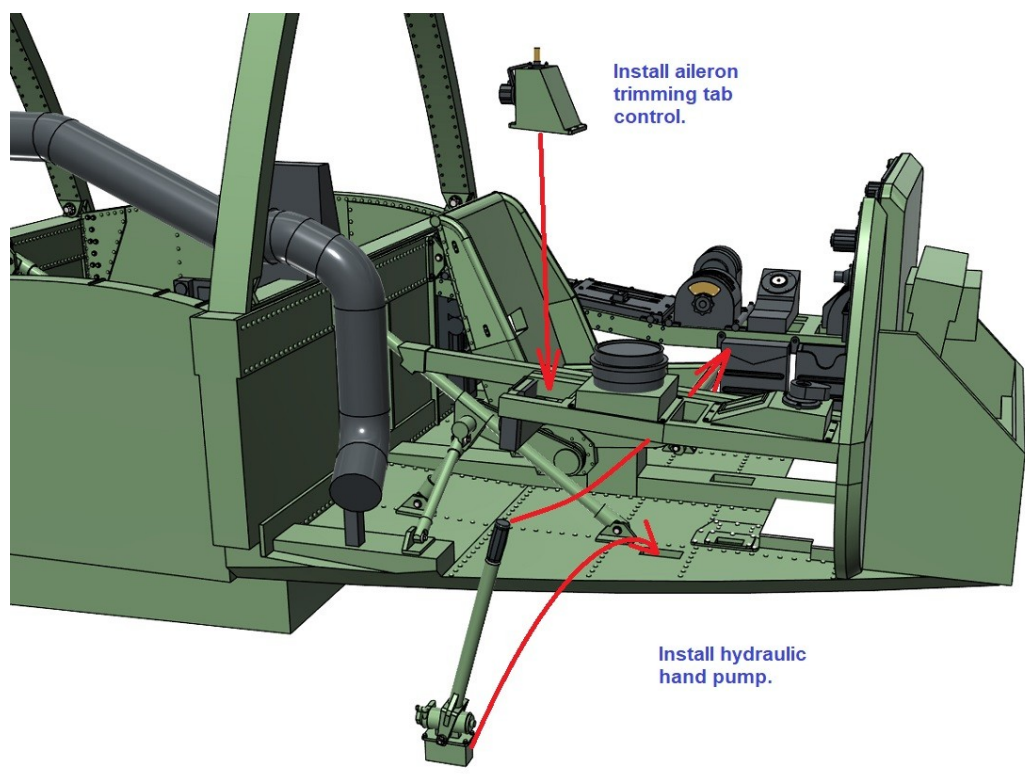

Install pilot's seat.

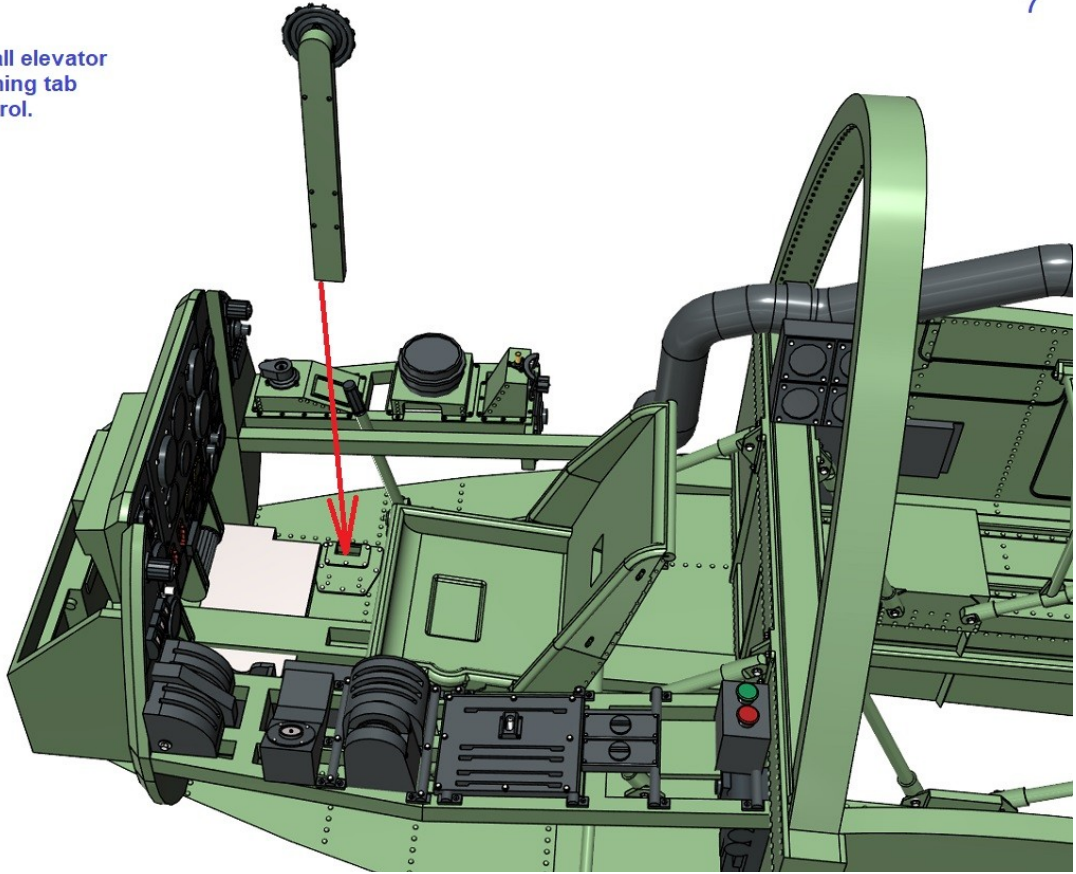

Install aileron trimming tab control.

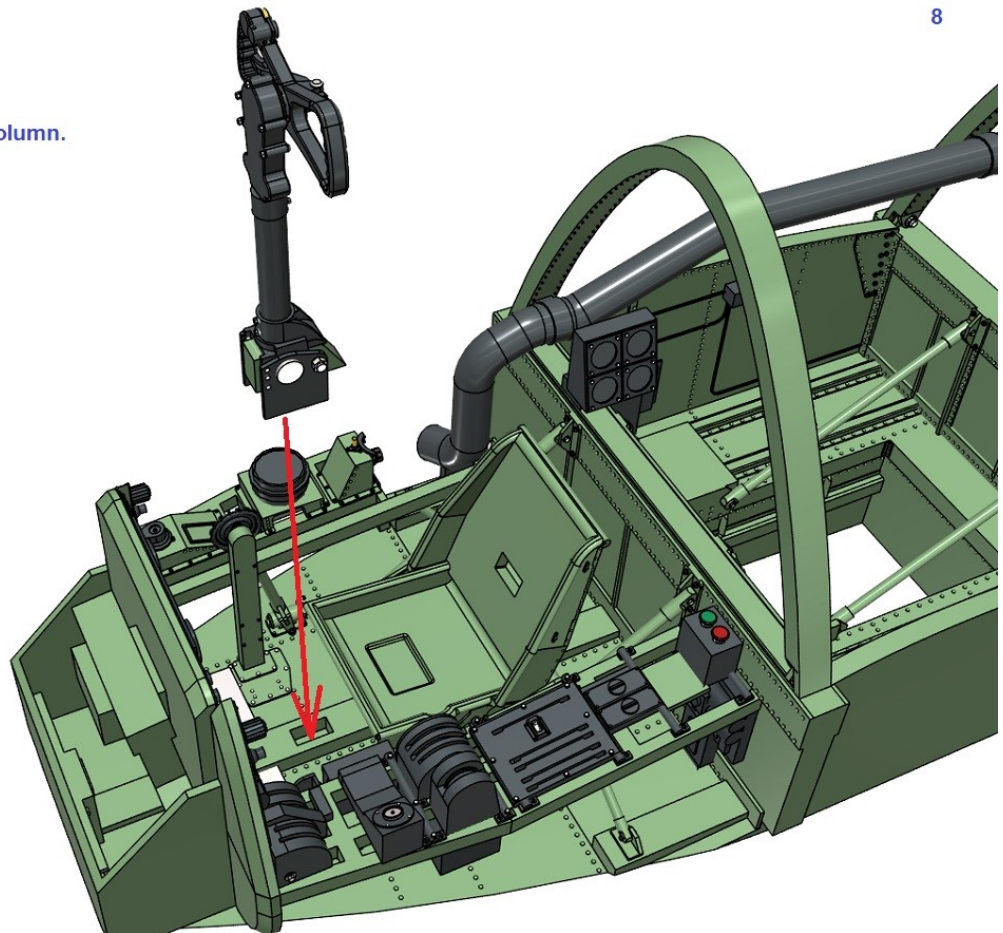

Install hydraulic hand pump.

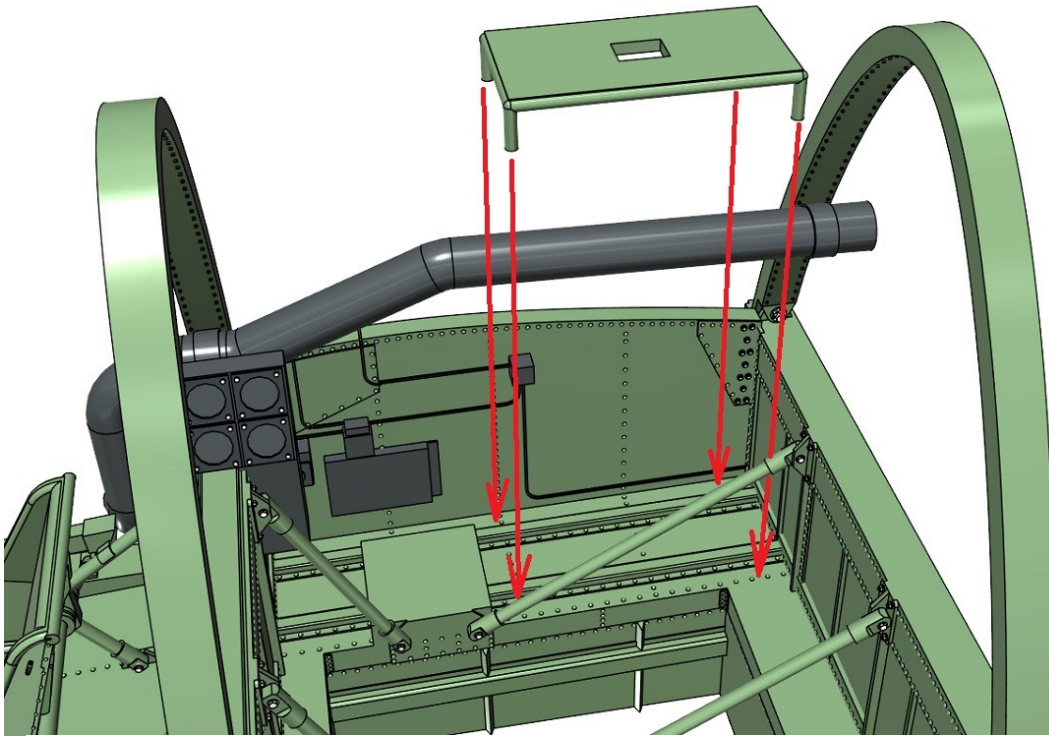

Install elevator
timing tab control.

Install control column.

Install radio rack.

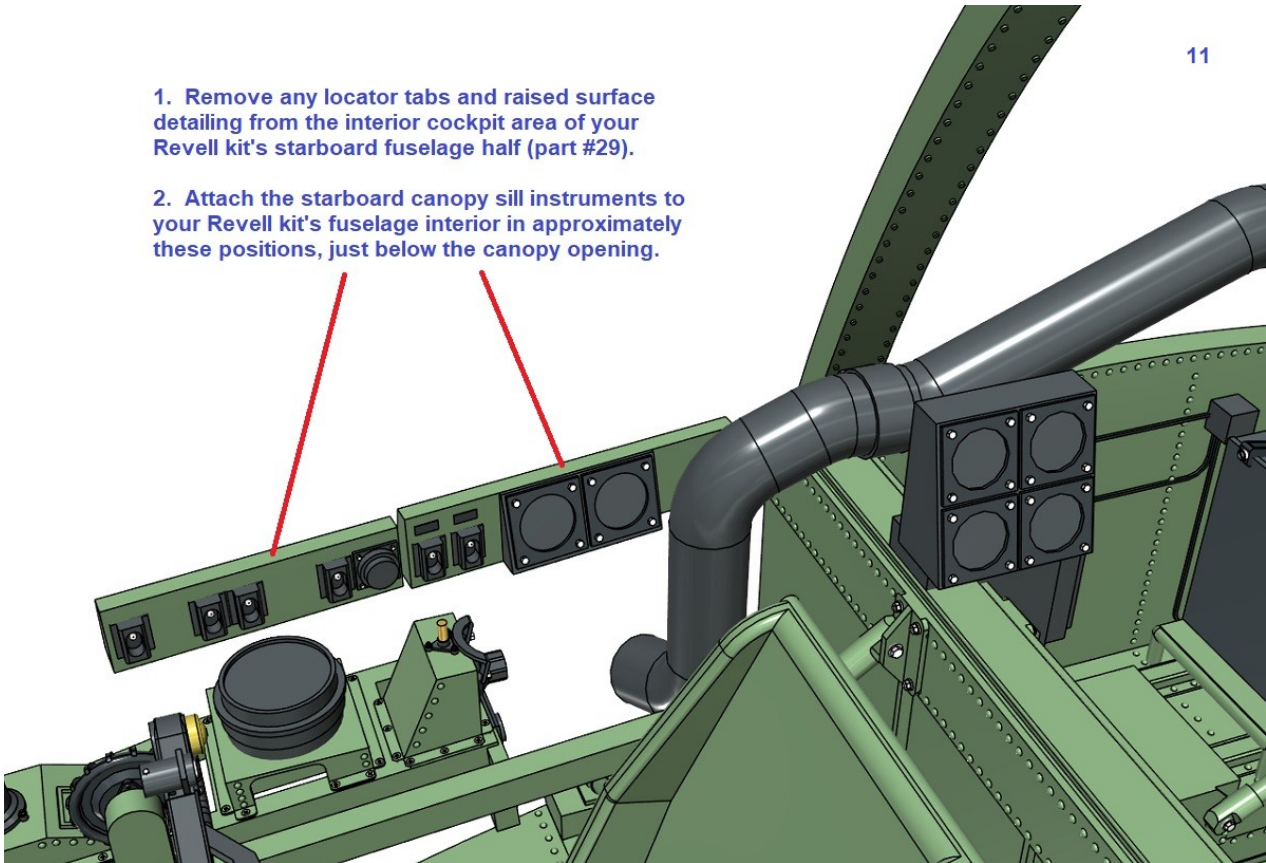

Install TR.9D radio.

1. Remove any locator tabs and raised surface detailing from the interior cockpit area of your Revell kit's starboard fuselage half (part #29).

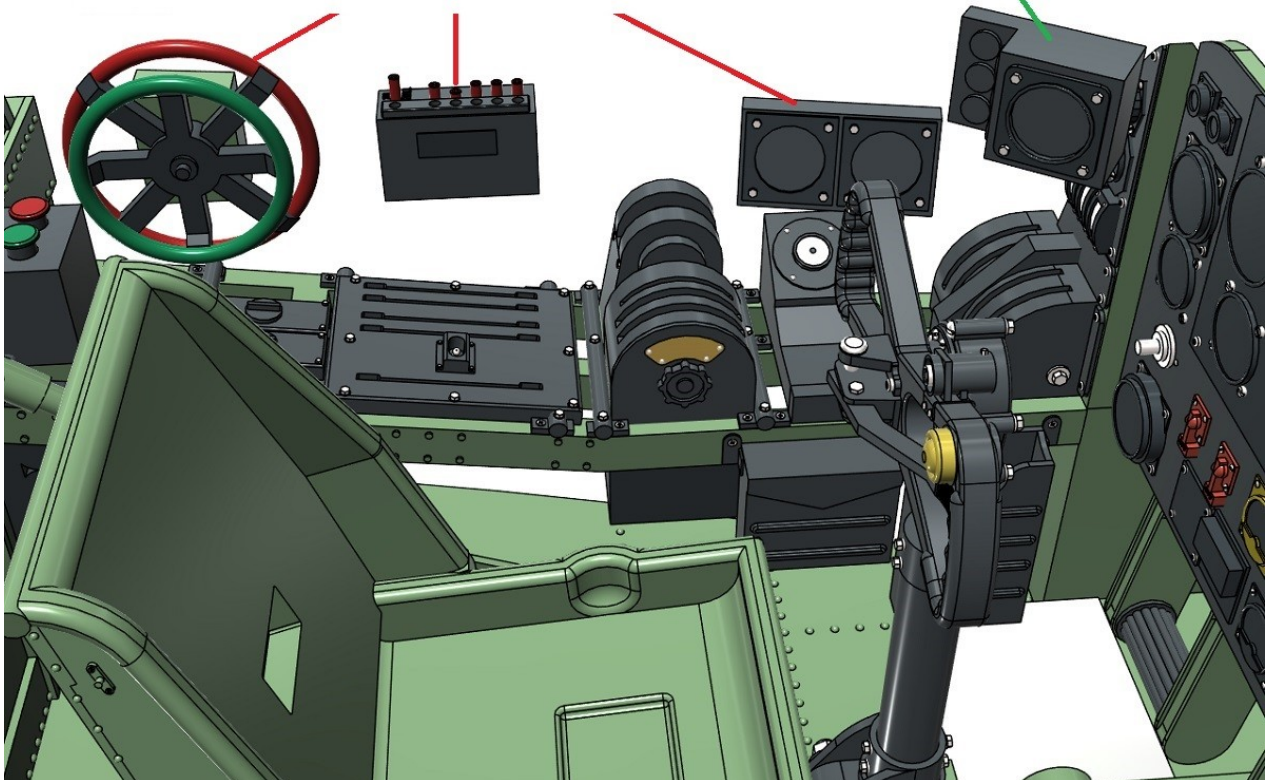

2. Attach the starboard canopy sill instruments to your Revell kit's fuselage interior in approximately these positions, just below the canopy opening.

1. Remove any locator tabs and raised surface detailing from the interior cockpit area of your Revell kit's port (left) fuselage half (part #30).

2. Attach the port canopy sill instruments to your Revell kit's fuselage interior in approximately these positions, just below the canopy opening.

Radio altimeter for late aircraft only.

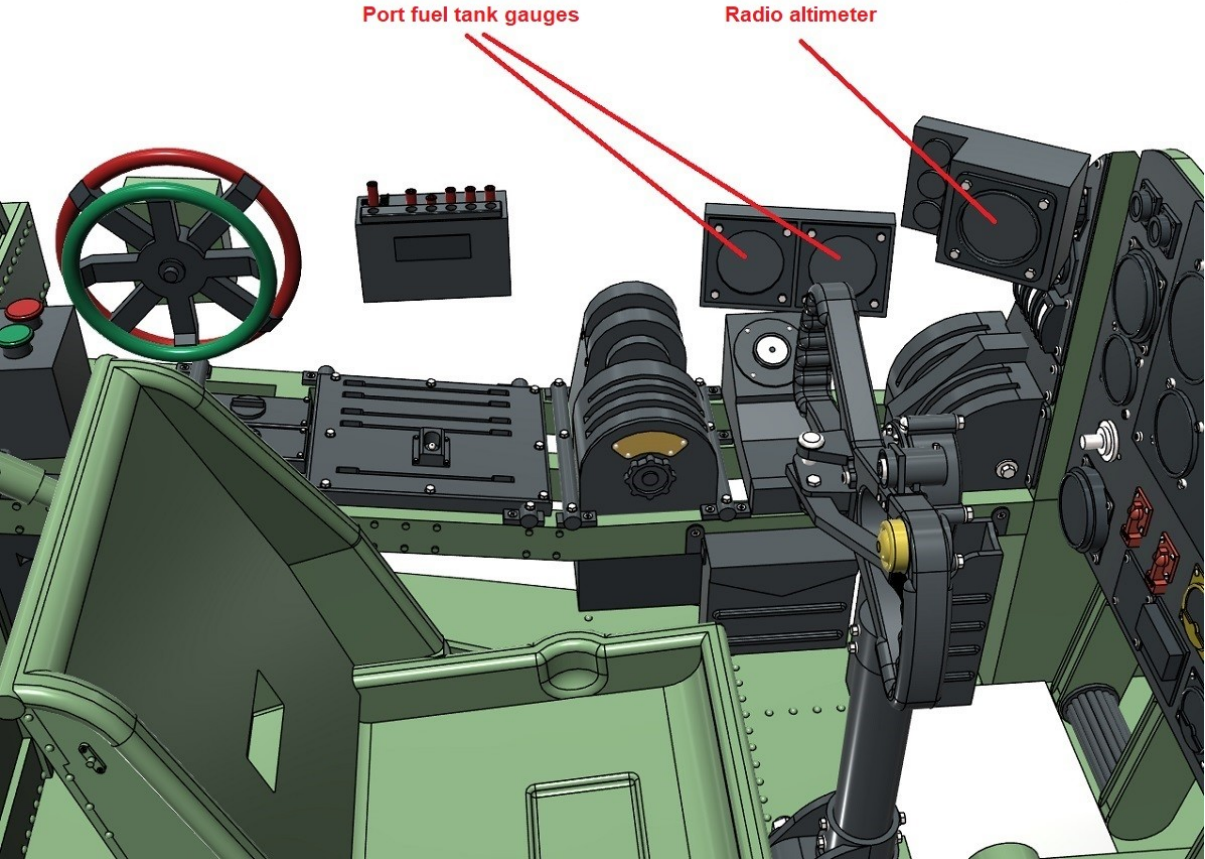

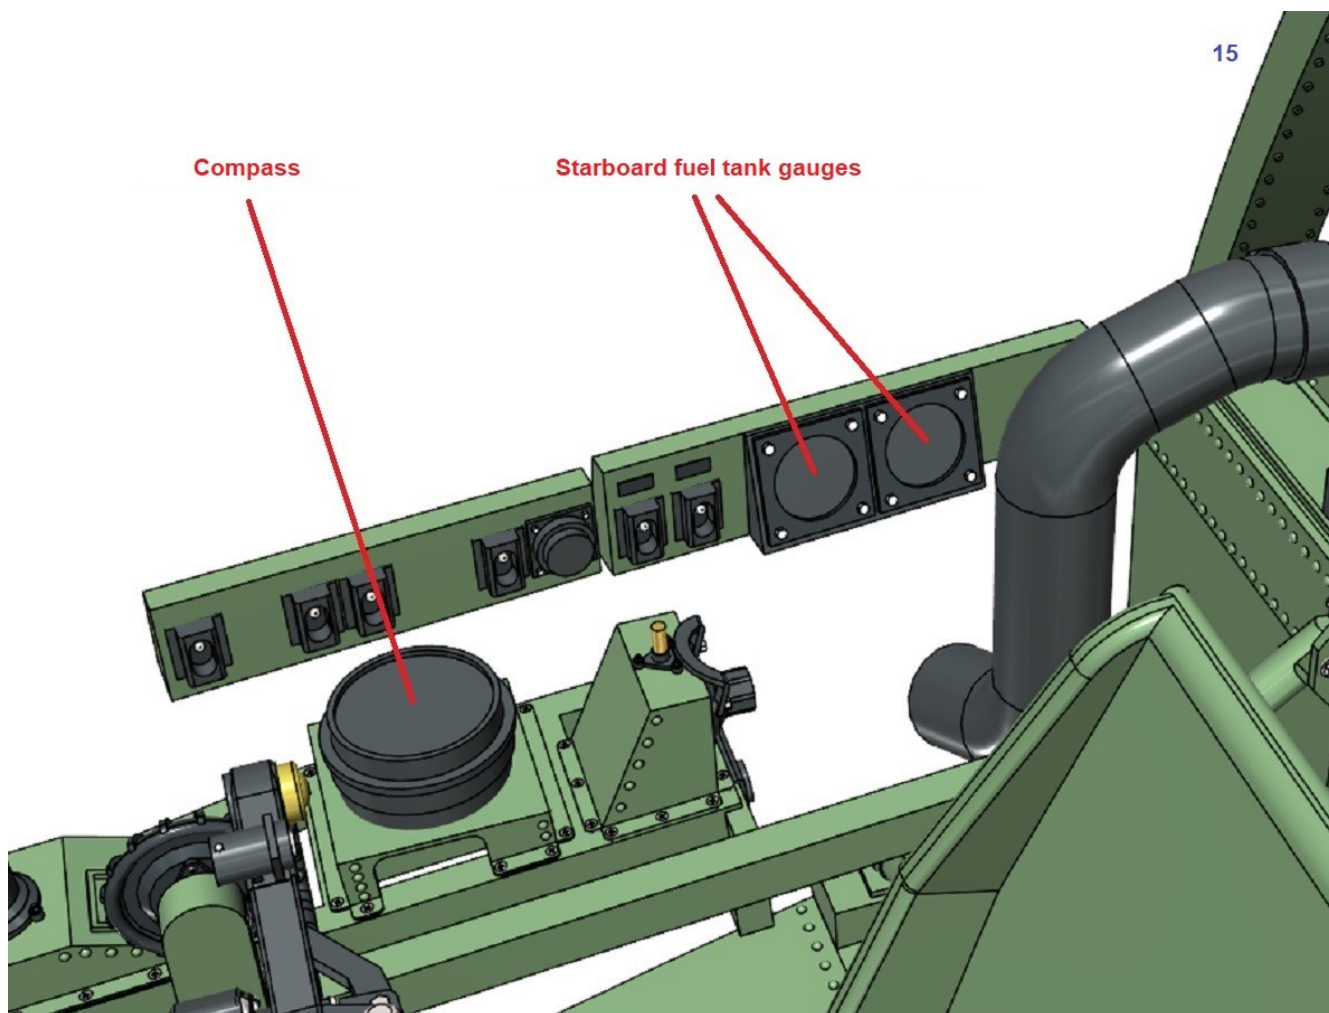

- 1. airspeed indicator
- 2. artificial horizon
- 3. rate of climb indicator
- 4. blind approach visual indicator
- 5. RPM indicator
- 6. clock
- 7. altimeter
- 8. direction indicator
- 9. turn and bank indicator
- 10. RPM indicator
- 11. oil temperature gauge
- 12. oil temperature gauge
- 13. air temperature gauge
- 14. pneumatic triple pressure gauge
- 15. radiator temperature gauge, port
- 16. radiator tempertaure gauge, starboard
- 17. boost gauge, port
- 18. boost gauge, starboard

1/32 scale RAF aircraft instrument decals are available from "Airscale".
 Link - <https://www.airscale.co.uk/>

1/32 scale Beaufighter airframe stencil and markings decals are available from "Aviaeology".
 Link - <https://www.aviaeology.com/>

"Airscale" RAF instrument decals available at https://www.airscale.co.uk/ \(click here\).

"Aviaeology" Beaufighter airframe stencil and markings decals are available at https://www.aviaeology.com/ \(click here\).